For immediate release

While visiting the downtown Waterbury headquarters of Family Services of Greater Waterbury, The Reverend Doctor James Bradley, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Waterbury and representing the Waterbury Deanery, presented a check for $10,000 from the Harrub Trust, held in custody by the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut, to Ashley Turner, Director of the Family Center Program. The funds will be used to counsel and train foster and biological parents with respect to a child's return to a caring and loving family setting. The program thus far has exceeded expectations. Support from the Waterbury Deanery of the Episcopal Diocese is greatly appreciated and will further the Agency's successful efforts in the reunification of families. Family Services of Greater Waterbury, a private, not-for-profit multi-Services agency, is committed to strengthening families and individuals through quality Services, community collaboration and social advocacy.
